

Who can be nominated?

- The nominee must exhibit the qualities of quiet and consistent leadership in promoting both volunteerism and advocating for effective volunteer management support and practices
- The nominee must be a member in good standing of Volunteer Management Group of Edmonton

How often is the award given out?

- The award is presented to the winner at the Volunteer Management Group Annual General Meeting each year. The winner must be able to attend the Annual General Meeting in June

Can previous winners be nominated?

- Previous winners are not eligible

How is a winner determined?

- Board members of Volunteer Management Group will determine a winner from the list of nominees

When can someone be nominated?

- A call for nominations will begin in February. All nominations must be received by April 30 and a final decision on the winner will be made in May

How can I nominate someone?

To nominate someone for this award, you will need to submit a written statement of no more than 750 words describing:

- The impact the nominee's work has had on others (peers or volunteers)
- How the nominee's work is creative and/or innovative
- The commitment and depth of involvement the nominee has in the voluntary sector in Edmonton, either through their own volunteering, volunteering with VMG, leadership in the industry, or mentoring others
- What sets the nominee apart from others

Send your statement, along with the completed nomination form (see our website for the form) by mail to:

Box 64047
Queen Mary Park PO
11528-107 Avenue
Edmonton, AB
T5H 4K7
Attention: Awards Committee